His Word Not Invalidated.

[Youth's Companion.]
A case was on trial in a Kentucky courtroom. An old man of somewhat disreputable appearance had just given important testimony, and the lawyer whose cause suffered by his statements, strove in every way to confuse and trip him, but in vain.

The witness stuck to his story, and did not lose his temper in spite of the irritating manner in which the cross-examination was conducted.

Finally, in the hope of breaking down the credibility of the witness, the lawyer at a venture asked:

"Have you ever been in prison?"

"I have," replied the witness.

"Ah," exclaimed the attorney, with a triumphant glance at the jury, "I thought as much. May I inquire how long you were there?"

"Two years and three months," answered the witness quietly, with a manner that was interpreted by the lawyer as indicating chagrin at an unexpected exposure.

"Indeed," said the delighted lawyer, feeling his case already won, "That was a heavy sentence. I trust the jury will note the significance of the fact. Now, sir, tell the jury where you were confined."

"In Andersonville," replied the old man, drawing himself up proudly.

There was a moment of silence, the jurors looked at each other, and then the courtroom rang with cheers which the court officers were powerless to check, and in which some of the jury joined.

The too-inquisitive lawyer hardly waited to hear the verdict against him.

Horse Breeders Read.

Do not miss a chance of breeding to the best stock getter, "Dan Burns" in this section of Michigan. I have had seven different men wanting me to take him back on his old route at Richmond. He will stand at his own stable in Yale. 52-4 Geo. W. Bell.

Specimen Cases.

S. H. Clifford, New Cassel, Wis., was troubled with Neuralgia and Rheumatism, his Stomach was disordered, his Liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him. Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Speaker, Catwaba, O., had five large fever sores on leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold by Grant Holden & Bro's, Drug store.
